

University of Trieste – Doctorate in Engineering and Architecture (cycle XXIX, Academic Year 2013-2014) – Open PhD position funded by CNR-INSEAN

Deadline for application: 16 September 2013 (11.30 am CET)

Please be informed that CNR-INSEAN, The Italian Ship Model Basin, has funded a PhD position, which is now open for application at University of Trieste, Doctorate in Engineering and Architecture, cycle XXIX (Academic year 2013-2014).

The topic for this open PhD position is “Intermediate and long term wave and ship motion prediction in complex sea-states”, in the framework of research activities at CNR-INSEAN in the field of numerical and experimental methods for propagation of water waves and for short, medium and long term prediction of ship motions.

The deadline for the application is on 16 September 2013 (11.30 am CET).
